Workshop Content

In “Advanced Space Harmony: New Choreutic Forms and Movement Invention,” participants explore little-known and seldom taught spatial forms drawn from Part II of Rudolf Laban’s master treatise, Choreutics, and Valerie Preston-Dunlop’s seminal compilation, Point of Departure: The Dancer’s Space.

Carol-Lynne and Cate love the Space Harmony material, and we are dedicated to making it accessible, expressive, and fun. We see Choreutics as a valuable body practice and a rich source for movement invention.

The Ico workshop moves from reviewing well-known Space Harmony sequences such as the Axis, Girdle, and A and B Scales, to new forms derived from these sequences. Over the course of two days, we explore intriguing forms such as Mixed 7-rings, Transverse and Peripheral 5-rings, Tilted Planes, Diminished 3-rings, Snakes, and more.... Along the way, we experiment with stable and mobile scales, open and closed trace forms, and symmetrical and asymmetrical sequences. Then we take the next step, linking these explorations with short improvisations and choreographic studies.

This is a continuing education workshop suitable for Certified Movement Analysts as well as anyone with a basic knowledge of Laban Movement Analysis.

Workshop Instructors

Carol-Lynne Moore, PhD, CMA, has been involved in the field of movement analysis for over three decades, working closely with Laban luminaries such as Irmgard Bartenieff and Warren Lamb. She has taught in 26 certificate programs in the US and Europe, most recently developing graduate programs in movement analysis for the University of Surrey (UK) and Columbia College Chicago. Publications include Beyond Words; The Harmonic Structure of Movement, Music, and Dance According to Rudolf Laban; Movement and Making Decisions; and Meaning in Motion: Introducing Laban Movement Analysis.

Cate Deicher, MA, CMA, founded the Department of Dance and Movement Studies at Alverno College in 1988 and served as faculty, department chair, and Fine Arts Dean during her tenure. She subsequently served as faculty and Academic Coordinator for the Graduate Laban Certificate in Movement Analysis at Columbia College Chicago. She also applies the Laban work to the development and teaching of movement-based courses for artists and designers at the Milwaukee Institute for Art and Design, and for nurses and architects at University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.
